

Megan Sullivan (center), a 2006 graduate of Mandeville High, recently signed to play college soccer for Millsaps College, a Division III school in Jackson, Miss. Sullivan scored more than 100 goals in a four-year career for the Lady Skippers, who were state finalists twice and state semi-finalists twice during her high school career. She was All-District and All-State as a senior. Joining her were, from left: her brother, Logan; her parents, Bruce and Elizabeth Sullivan, Mandeville girl's soccer head coach Sean Esker, and MHS Principal Bruce Bundy.
